

LEADERS TAKE OVER NORTHUMBRIA

Celebrate with other Leaders as our Centenary Year draws near to its close.

The whole weekend will be full of Mountain Top Moments as Leaders from all over the region come together to share in a series of events culminating in a musical evening at the Journal Tyne Theatre in Newcastle on Saturday evening and a 100 years “Reflections” at the site of BP’s very first “real” Scout camp at Humshaugh on Sunday morning. This is something JUST for Leaders - a thank you for the last 100 years - a real pick and mix weekend with a selection just as varied as the goodies at the local sweet shop when we were Brownie age!

Bed and breakfast will be available at Saint Hild and Saint Bede’s College, Durham (single rooms with washbasins, showers/bathrooms shared between every four rooms) on the nights of Friday 24th September and Saturday 25th September. Choose to stay both nights, just Saturday, or not at all.

The cost is £35 for just Saturday night, or £55 for both nights and this INCLUDES the price of a ticket and transport to the Tyne Theatre concert, plus transport to the Reflections on Sunday and back to Durham. There are different options available for activities on Saturday. This is our second version of the booking form (May 2010) which now asks you to pay in full and to choose your activities immediately. The activities are described in the online leaflet but please note that some activities are already fully booked. Bookings will close for this event at the end of June.

You will also be sent a booklet with a range of activities that you do not need to book. These will either be free, or you will pay the cost on the door, and for some of these we have negotiated generous discounts. There will also be the opportunity to enjoy Durham’s shops.

Activities include a river cruise in Durham, river cruise in Newcastle, visit to Durham Castle, Crook Hall Gardens, Durham town trail, Oriental Museum and the Botanical Gardens. There will also be discount vouchers for restaurants.

Meals

Breakfast is provided with the overnight accommodation and an evening meal will be available on Saturday evening at an additional cost. Meals are also available in a variety of local establishments. Discount vouchers will be available.

Transport will be available for everyone to travel from Hild and Bede’s to the Tyne Journal Theatre on Saturday and back after the concert.

The concert will include a variety of music for EVERYONE. There will be a brilliant choir - the Northern Spirit Singers. Aled Jones called them magic and Lesley Garrett described them as “The most wonderful group of young people I have had the pleasure of working with”. They will perform a variety of songs from modern music and songs from the shows to old favourites. In addition a Guiding choir will enable you to sing through Guiding memories as they perform Guiding songs from the last 100 years. There may be other performers but no one is firmly booked yet.

On Sunday, transport will be provided to and from Humshaugh for the Reflections. It will give you a chance to think about the guiding movement over the last 100 years as well as your own journey in guiding.

After that, you may resume some of Saturday’s activities, have lunch with friends or just go home!

What next?? APPLY NOW!

The form should be sent to Girlguiding North East England, 7 Alpha Court, Monks Cross Drive, Huntington, York, YO32 9WN before 30th June 2010. Cheques should be made payable to ‘North East England Guide Association’.
